Take the Green Triangle Survey

Thank you 9th District residents for talking "Green" to me! To date, we have received almost 200 responses from residents in the 9th District. The survey will be open until Monday, March 1st so if you haven't taken it yet there is still time, www.surveymonkey.com/s/greentrianglesurvey. The survey is a short set of questions including what sustainability means for the future, what people are currently doing, and what they want to learn more about. Questions, contact my office at 574-1109.

Sunday, February 28: Antique Appraisal event from 1:00 - 5:00 pm at Whitehall House and Gardens, 3110 Lexington Road. Have you ever wondered if that sugar chest in your attic is worth thousands of dollars? Or how about that old quilt hanging on the wall? Is it worth its weight in gold? Louisville antique dealer Scott F. Nussbaum is a nationally known antiquarian, certified appraiser and owner of Louisville's premier antique shop, Scott F. Nussbaum Antiques located on Frankfort Avenue. He will expertly appraise antiques, artwork, jewelry and other family heirlooms. Appraisals are $10 per item or 3 for $25 (limit of six items per person). No large furniture, coins, stamps, firearms, books or old letters will be accepted. Appraisals are verbal, non-binding, and not to be used for insurance purposes.
